RALPH SCATENA, GENERAL MANAGER
CAMELBACK INN, A JW MARRIOTT RESORT & SPA

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – Ralph Scatena, a 25-year veteran with the Marriott Corporation, serves as general manager for the legendary Camelback Inn, A JW Marriott Resort & Spa.

As general manager, Scatena oversees all operations for the 453-room luxury resort including The Spa at Camelback Inn, a 32,000-square-foot, full-service spa; Camelback Golf Club, which features 36 holes of Championship golf; seven restaurants and lounges; and 40,000 square feet of convention and banquet space.

Scatena began working for the Marriott Corporation as a front desk attendant, and from there has built an impressive career in senior management. He has held key positions at various Marriott properties across the United States, the Midwestern regional office and corporate headquarters. Most recently, Scatena was part of the tremendous effort that received the newly opened JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort & Spa “Hotel of the Year” in 2004.

In his spare time, Scatena enjoys playing both golf and tennis. Married for 20 years, he lives with his wife, Nancy, and their daughter, Lauren, in Phoenix.
